

Psychedelic Medicine in Mental Health Care

Thursday Jan 15, 2026

3 to 4:30pm on ZOOM

Contact peerworknetwork@vch.ca for zoom link

Learn about and discuss the ethics of psychedelic medicine in mental health care

“This topic is becoming more and more popular, creating great opportunities, yet also potential risk and harm if these medicines are used disrespectfully, without ethical and safety considerations in place. It seems to me that one of the best prophylactic/harm reduction practices is education; as psychedelic science and therapies continue advancing and becoming more available to the public, we already see peer support workers, navigators and facilitators presented with questions and curiosity on the topic.

Hence the importance of providing practical, ethical and reliable information to cover the basics on this fascinating topic, enabling an honest, informed and safety-oriented perspective to discuss with the people they serve and promote harm reduction.”

Rodrigo Gomez, Ma.P.P.

Concurrent Disorders Clinician
Vancouver Coastal Health, Stepping Stones Concurrent Disorders Service

A Consumer Involvement and Initiatives forum for all BC peer workers; including peer support workers, peer facilitators, peer navigators and CIF project leads.

Vancouver
CoastalHealth